

Do you like to get stuck in with both hands? Then you're just right for us as a

Discipline Group Trainer (f/m/d) Women's Sculling

We'd be happy to hire you immediately, initially on a fixed-term contract through December 31, 2028. Location: Berlin

They say that the best way to see and experience Berlin is from the water. If that's the case, then as our new women's sculling coach, you've come to the right place – because you'll be coaching Germany's top female scullers from single to quadruple scull. With passion, empathy, and effective training methods, you'll work alongside your fellow national coaches and in coordination with our head coach to guide the rowers to the A-Final and beyond. You'll find highly motivated athletes, a great coaching staff, a science-based environment, and – above all – workdays that are never the same but are always fulfilling. Like to start right away? Then apply by September 13, 2026!

RESPONSIBILITIES ...

- › You will lead and develop your women's sculling training group toward success at the 2028 Olympics in Los Angeles.
- › Together with your national team coach and in coordination with the head coach, you enhance our women's sculling group.
- › You will coordinate all necessary training, competition, and performance assessment activities for the women's sculling team.
- › You will plan and manage key competitions, training camps, and tryouts in collaboration with your fellow coaches.

REQUIREMENTS ...

- › A DOSB-certified coaching diploma or a degree in sports science, or comparable international qualifications.
- › A track record of success as a coach at international rowing championships.
- › Excellent organizational skills, team spirit, and the ability to remain calm and professional under pressure.
- › Driver's license (with trailer) and motorboat license.

WHAT WE OFFER ...

- › Germany's best female rowers, all in one place: Berlin.
- › The opportunity to lead the women's quadruple sculling boats to the top of the world.
- › Efficient decision-making processes: You and your national team coach make decisions in consultation with the head coach.
- › Flexible work hours, 36 days of vacation, a laptop, cell phone, and bike leasing.
- › A presidium and executive board team that wants the same thing as you: maximum success!

Interested? Then send your application by September 13th via email with your salary expectations to: Robert.Sens@rudern.de

Board member for Sports, Robert Sens, will be happy to answer any questions. Just give him a call: +49 160 96 70 35 31

For better readability, we refrain from using gender-specific language. All references to persons apply equally to all genders. We are an inclusive sports association that promotes and respects equal opportunities. Personnel selection is based solely on individual qualifications and strengths. If two or more candidates are equally qualified, we give preference to a woman for the position.

As the German Rowing Federation, we would like to encourage people of all genders to apply here and now!

